

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

A Tennessee delegation, headed by Mr. H. Maynard, called to pay their respects to President Johnson, yesterday, and had the good sense to spare him the infliction of a speech, simply testifying their good will by a shake of the hand.

Telegraphic communication with British Columbia is now completed. The news of the assassination of President Lincoln was received at Van Couver's Island and British Columbia with every evidence of public sorrow.

Several paroled officers of Lee's army having signified a desire to go to Europe or elsewhere, Major General Ord has issued an order informing them that passports and passage to Halifax will be furnished them on application to the Provost Marshal Department of Virginia.

All those paroled prisoners of war of Lee's army who were allowed to return to Washington, are to be exchanged immediately and sent South, it having been decided that they can no longer claim the District as their place of residence. All those who take the oath will be allowed to remain.

Gen. Halleck, who is now in Richmond, has issued a general order announcing his assignment to the command of the military division which embraces the Department of Virginia, the Army of the Potomac, and such parts of North Carolina as may not be occupied by the command of Gen. Sherman.

President Johnson has been presented with a coffee or tea set, formerly used by Jefferson Davis, and lately sold at auction in Richmond. The set is a miniature of a railroad locomotive with tender attached.

The funeral of the late President Lincoln will take place at Springfield, Ill., on the 6th of May. Yesterday the remains were carried up the Hudson River railroad, crowds of people coming to all the cities and towns on the route. Mr. Bancroft delivered a funeral oration in Union square, New York.

Joseph Shaw, editor of the Westminister, Carroll County, Md., Democrat, whose paper was mobbed and material destroyed on the night of the murder of President Lincoln, and who was warned away by the people, returned to Westminister, and on Monday night his house was visited by a number of persons, who knocked at his door. He appeared and fired on the crowd, wounding a young man named Henry Bell. Upon this the enraged crowd killed Shaw on the spot.

A general order has been issued at Richmond announcing that if among the paroled prisoners of the Confederate army there are any mechanics who desire to remove to the North their families, with a view to obtaining employment, they will, upon taking the oath of allegiance, be furnished with transportation to Philadelphia, New York or Boston, as they may desire.

Information from Gen. Wilson's expedition, up to the 20th inst., has been received in Chattanooga, Tenn., through the lines. Besides Macon, Ga., the capture of which was officially announced by General Sherman, Columbus, Griffin and West Point, Ga., are reported to have fallen into the possession of the Union forces. At the latter place, it is stated, Gen. Dick Taylor was killed. The number of prisoners taken at Columbus, Ga., and paroled, is estimated at 1,000. All the rolling stock, two bridges, and the depot of the West Point and Montgomery railroad, were destroyed by Gen. Wilson's troops.

The Norfolk (Va.) Old Dominion says that the weather there on Friday last was uncomfortably warm, rendering linen coats necessary. The thermometer was up to 78. A large number of persons enjoyed themselves in bathing in the Elizabeth river.
